Now Thank We All Our God

With Hearts and Hands and Voices- Martin Rinkart -1636

As we move through the celebration of Halloween, follow with Nov. 1st, All Saints' Day, turn our clocks back an hour leaving Daylight Savings Time, purchase our Hunting Licenses for Deer, and observe Veterans Day, we then pause on the fourth Thursday of November to observe and celebrate Thanksgiving Day. It's the celebration of Harvest and God's goodness to us and our country.

It's a holiday tradition established by Congress under Abraham Lincoln in the middle of the Civil War, but really an event that many families in a variety of countries have celebrated under different titles for many years.

How wonderful and appropriate for all of us to remember that God has blessed us with life, with relationships, and with the heart to be thankful! Remember to give Thanks this November as we move toward the end of another year.

Have a blessed month of November!

Friendly Reminder

Holiday Decorating

In preparation for the holiday season, many of us are getting ready to dust off those wonderful festive decorations, and spruce-up our living space with holiday cheer. As you and your little elves decorate, please keep in mind the following guidelines:

Approved items:

- Artificial decorations
- UL approved lighting

Unapproved items:

- Real pine tree or plants
 - Extension cords
- Cords that are tripping hazards
- "Wrapping" the entire room door.
- Any decorations that interfere with closing or opening the doors.
- Any decorations that generate excessive heat.

Please see Noel if you have any questions!
